

TACTICS

Improving collaboration between police and service providers to effectively respond to violence against women

TACTICS PATHWAY

Assessment of police practices

Conducting an analysis of police practices responding to domestic violence in Estonia, France, Belgium, Germany, Greece, Spain and Romania

01

Development of TACTICS tools and program

Improving existing training materials and instruments for police officers to respond to violence against women

02

Systemic capacity building

Enhancing the capacities of police, victim support services and perpetrator programmes, for an effective, coordinated response to violence against women

03

Established cooperation and data collection

Formalizing cooperation between police and other service providers and developing effective data collection for continuous improvement of coordinated action

04

Co-funded by the European Union

<https://www.work-with-perpetrators.eu/tactics>

